JUDGMENT

1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned standing counsel for the respondents.

2. If Ext.P16 has become final and if there are no interdicting orders against it, there is no reason why the directions contained therein are not given effect to, at the earliest. Hence, it is directed that unless there are any orders by the competent courts staying the operation of Ext.P16, the second respondent shall comply with the directions contained in Ext.P16 by making re-assessment and raising appropriate bill on the petitioner. Let that be done within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment and a copy of the writ petition.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN,
JUDGE.
